

Psychology as a Minor

Allows students to learn more about diverse populations and to gain a greater understanding of human behavior.

Students will take:

- Human Development
- Abnormal Psychology
- Plus 12 more credits of Advanced Psychology

BEACON
COLLEGE

Dr. Shelly Chandler, LMHC
Department Chair
Beacon College
(352) 638-9710
schandler@beaconcollege.edu

BEACON
COLLEGE

105 E. Main Street
Leesburg, Florida 34748

(352) 787-7660 (general)
(352) 638-9731 (admissions)

admissions@beaconcollege.edu
www.beaconcollege.edu

Human Services Program

Human Services is ...

Making a difference in peoples' lives.

Organized activities that help people in the areas of health care, mental health, social welfare, child care, criminal justice, housing, recreation and education.

Human Services: A Glance at the Major

Associates in Arts Degree:

General Education Requirements (36 credits)
Introduction to Human Services
Public & Private Agencies
Human Development
The Family
Personal Development

Bachelor of Arts Degree:

All of the above classes plus ...
Cross-Cultural Psychology
Ethical Issues in Human Services
Adult Development and Aging
Substance Abuse
Critical Thinking
Abnormal Psychology
Multicultural Diversity
Senior Seminar
Counseling Strategies & Intervention
Career & Professional Development
Culture of the Workplace
Electives

Outlook for Employment

Occupational Titles:

Case Management
Physical Therapy Assistant
Residential Counselor / Specialist
Behavioral Manager / Counselor
Parole Officer
Activities Director
Home Health Care Provider
Group Home Leader
Child Abuse Specialist / Counselor Counselor
Adult Day Care Specialist
Teaching Assistant
Academic Advisor
Sports Manager
Substance Abuse Counselor
Employment Specialist
Pre-K Teacher
K-12 Teacher

According to the U.S. Department of Labor, Human Services is one of the fastest growing occupations for the next five years!