Transfer Eligibility Form

Once you are accepted to Beacon College, and if you are a non-immigrant international student who is a transfer from another college or university in the United States; you will be required to fill out and complete a Transfer Eligibility Form.

This form has two parts. The first is to be completed by the student and the second must be completed by the DSO at your current college or university.

The Eligibility form will come to you in the form of an email with a link to follow. Please follow the link and print out the form to be completed.

Thank you again for your interest in Beacon College.
